

What's a Princess?

What's a Princess, what's a girl?
What does she matter in this world?
Giving kisses, saying hello
To all the people she doesn't even know

What's a Princess?
What's a girl, in this world?

What's a Princess what's in a name?
Running around seems all in vain
Signing papers to declare
For all they know she's not even there!

What's a Princess?
What's a girl, in this world?

“ I'm stuck in this tall tower”
No-one even knows I'm even here !
I could just fly away
I could just disappear !
Cos all I want to do is, to fly
Like a butterfly !

What's a Princess, what does she know?
`bout spreading flowers wherever she goes ?
Being proper, looking sweet
Wearing slippers on her little feet
She's pretending not to care
That her life isn't really hers

What's a Princess?
What's a girl in this world?
